

Pre-Energized Vee-Packing

Vee-Packing that does not require the tightening of the gland follower to maintain a seal.
No more weekly tightening of the bolts.

- Specially Engineered Profile creates a seal simply by being fitted into the gland.
- Available to meet temperatures from -40°F to +400°F
- Specially Design available in split configuration.
- Less likely to be damaged during equipment assembly.
- Special grades available for Water Hydraulics.
- Available in sizes from 1/8" to 80"
- Drastically extended service life.
- Large range of material options available.